

Photographs

Taken by Mrs. on trip to visit Ed +
Martha Sanford at Clark College, Worcester (where he was President)
Also to N.W. island,
Portland Maine (Clark)
+ corners in Midwest

A first try

On Portland Streets.

Hand Organ man -

Your neighbor's laundry

at Ft. Williams.

Seen out of

Ft. Williams.

East Promenade, gray day

Icicles - Worcester.

Snow-Imp Effect - Worcester

Icicles outside Martha's window

Puzzle picture - Florence's window garden

Giant cherry tree.

North. Stonington, Conn.

Oldest graves (Gov. Mayhew)

So Water St West to Parsonage

Martha's Vineyard.

Shinn Cousins, Milwaukee

gws

Plains about Denver-alfalfa ranch.

The kind of thing I found at Niles,

the next week.

(Japanese magnolia) —

- and callas -

- and more callas -

- and Chinese magnolia -

- and poet's narcissus at the bungalow -

-and cherry blossoms.

Cherry bloom in Berkeley, too.

Ruth's (now Julia's) tract, Miles.

Looking north at

Ruth's home, Ukiah

Ruth's front fence appears in lower left hand corner.

Looking north at

Ruth's home, Ukiah

In the first of these, Ruth
at her front gate, in winter.
Neighbor's car standing in front of his house. In the second,

(End of street)

From Ruth's front steps, S. westward

From Ernest's attic

Eucalyptus.

Looking across W.P. strip toward my home site. Eucalyptus.

Ed's courtship rose,

in east garden.

From the lady's window, over the roses, toward bungalow.

From her south window, past pepper

toward cypresses.

Puzzle picture.

Two tries at the

Lamarque, and trees,

from bathroom window.

Arbor vitae

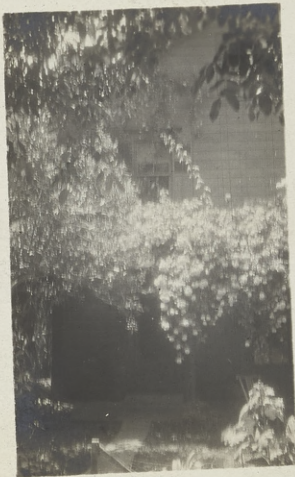

Same Lamarque, from below.

Same, further off

South^{east}~~west~~, from her little balcony

Her window.

The curly willow

beyond the s.p.

My home site.,

Cherry, apricot, gum.

1/2 of old team of Robin & Frances NILES

Old Robin

